

JAMIE WHITEHORN

DATA SCIENTIST

ABOUT ME

I blend and clarify data in novel ways to create new and illuminating insights. I'm currently studying a self-funded MSc in Data Science at Dundee University. For the last 25 years I've worked in IT as a programmer, solutions architect, manager and troubleshooter.

- Creative - I use data in novel ways
- Curious - I work beyond the obvious
- Tenacious - I don't give up
- Technical - I adapt across diverse platforms
